

Young Adult Discussion

In Between: one teen, two cultures by P.T. Rezende

1. Are there aspects of this memoir with which you identified yourself?
2. What do you think about the teen's upbringing?
3. Was he a happy child? Was he spoiled?
4. How about his need for technology? Was he demanding?
5. Considering all he was able to do in a month, where do you think he had the most fun?
6. Of all the different situations he encountered in Brazil, what was the most unusual?
7. What is your opinion about the teen's mother?
8. As far as family relationship, what did you learn that was interesting?
9. How do you foresee this teen's relationship with his Brazilian family when he becomes an adult?
10. What would you do differently if you were him?
